The Chancellor reported on a few new hires; Provost Sheryl Tucker will begin in June,
Nick Wortman is the Assistant Vice Chancellor of Human Resources, Jeff Harmon is the new Executive Director of University Communications and Marketing, and David Shirley is the new director of Institutional Effectiveness Planning and Research. The Chancellor was in Springfield last week for the legislative session. They have put together a few models for the next fiscal year budget and this will be the last year to pay back the financial sustainability plan. Chancellor Lane shared his screen and gave an update on enrollment numbers 15 weeks out; applicants up 20.6%, admissions up 5.5%, and enrolled up 17.5% from last year. The Chancellor encouraged faculty to attend commencement and show their support. B. Rader asked if the enrollment information can be shared. Chancellor Lane will have Wendell Williams send that information to B. Rader to share. Y. Lee asked if the enrollment data includes online students. Lane said the enrollment information included traditional and nontraditional students. Y. Lee asked for an update on the faculty salary study. Chancellor Lane said they are waiting on data. M. Eichholz added they have a meeting scheduled next week with Marc Morris to review the final report draft. C. Tsatsoulis stated he is working on forming an ad hoc committee to progress toward an R1 ranking. K. Meksem suggested having SIU’s active researchers involved with the committee.

B. Co-Provost’s Marc Morris and Robert Morgan additional comments – R. Morgan reported sending an email to all deans encouraging faculty attendance at commencement. Morgan announced that Provost Tucker will start on June 15. They have a system-wide initiative to create pathways to graduation by course sharing with SIUE. A few select online courses will begin pilot testing the program this summer. R. Morgan stated that enrollment is up 6% compared to LY and they are working on revising the probation suspension policy. Morgan thanked FS for their feedback on that revision and is looking to incorporation the information. They will then send the policy to FS UEPC for a resolution.

VI. Reports
A. Executive Committee: Chair, Bethany Rader – B. Rader reported that not all standing committees have elected a chair/co-chair but will by the July meeting. Rader spoke about the discussion of hosting a meet and greet with all faculty and Provost Tucker this fall.

B. Election Committee: Chair, Elaine Jurkowski – E. Jurkowski reported 5 new Senators were elected from the election extension and they will have one vacancy to fill this fall with a special election. Jurkowski attended the Graduate Council meeting last week and they elected Scott Collins as chair.
