

Over the past year (2024-2025), the Governance Committee met multiple times to discuss possible changes to the faculty senate operating paper. Ultimately, the committee decided not to recommend any changes. Include, the committee concluded that the operating paper is fully up to date. The Governance Committee has also been involved in discussions regarding two resolutions, one related to administrative positions hires, the other related to the university reimbursement process. The Governance Committee approve both resolutions, and both were voted on and approved by the full senate. The Governance Committee chair also met with Vice Provost Wallace to discuss the school operating process.
